

Our Principal

15/02/2010 20:25 by spncon

Dr. Param Pal Kaur Cheema had her Diploma in General Nursing from School of Nursing S.G.T.B Hospital Amritsar and Diploma in Midwifery from Government Hospital Sec-16 Chandigarh with Distinction. She joined Punjab State Health Department in 1975 and served as O.T Nurse in S.G.T.B Hospital Amritsar. She had Post B.Sc Nsg. degree from College of Nursing PGI Chandigarh in 1987 and stood first in the Punjab University, Chandigarh. She did her M.Sc(N) (Medical Surgical) from R.G.U.H.S Bangalore in 2010 and P.H.D(N) in 2013.

She worked as Sr. Tutor in School of Nursing C.H. Hoshiarpur. She had attended In-Service Trainings & Workshops on various subjects as CSSM, RCH, Management for senior Nursing Administrators from NIHAIE NEW DELHI.

She imparted training in first-Aid & Home Nursing to School lecturers in training camps organized by Red Cross Society of Punjab Chandigarh at District and State Level. She got training on BIOMEDICAL WASTE MANAGEMENT from AIIMS NEW DELHI and imparted training to Doctors, Nurses and paramedical staff of the Hoshiarpur District. She has held many posts in Nurses Association of Punjab. She holds life membership of TNAI and attended many seminars and conferences at state & National level.

Â

After taking voluntary retirement from Punjab State Health Department in February 2007, she decided to join SPN School of Nursing. She has more than 30 years experience in clinical, Nursing Education and Nursing Administration. She is very dynamic motivated and committed planner, who is dedicated to make this institute the best in Punjab.